

OCC'S Off-Road 101/201

Off-Road 101/201

Who: Open to the public, All interested in 4x4;
new, old, experienced, beginner,

all vehicles; Hummer, Rover, Jeep, Bronco, Yota, Sami...

What: Organized off-road skills classes and behind the wheel training / practice

When: July 23th and July 24th, Drivers' Meeting 9:00am

Where: The Cove Campground near Gore VA

To sign up: Send an e-mail: 101@offcambercrawlers.com

Two class offerings:

*101 – Intro to Off-Roading (for beginners and drivers with some experience);
Getting Ready for the Trail, Know Your Vehicle, and Negotiate Terrain*

201 – Intermediate Skills (for more experienced drivers);

Field Vehicle Repair & Recovery and Intermediate Driving Skills

Details at: www.offcambercrawlers.com/learn4x4

Topics Covered:

Getting to Know Your 4WD Vehicle

(Instructors familiar with Rovers, all Jeeps, Toyotas, Scouts, Fords, Hummers, etc.)

What to Bring; tools, gear and parts

Wheeling basics, vehicle and its systems

(4wd drive train components, traction devices, clearance, angles, flex/droop, etc.)

Wheeling basics, the terrain and driving

(Mud, water, logs, rocks, trails, hills, off-camber, driving techniques, negotiating obstacles)

Trail Repairs

(Drive-line removal/install, U-joint replacement, axle pull, setting a bead, temporary trail repairs, etc.)

Spotting and Guiding

Introduction to Recovery

Advanced recovery, snatch-block, multiple winches, etc.

Driving Exercise: Drive various terrain, obstacle negotiation, spotting, winching, etc.

Space Limited,
Sign up today!